The Editor-in-Chief is solely responsible for the general policies of the quarterly, for the printing and other fixed charges, and for his own articles. Neither the quarterly nor the Editor-in-Chief assumes responsibility for errors of fact or opinion on the part of contributors, but any proved errors will gladly be corrected. The responsibility of Contributing Editors, as well as that of casual contributors, is limited to articles published under their own names. The quarterly was founded as an organ for the publication of reliable data prepared by competent genealogists, both professional and amateur.
